

CALENDAR

By Chandler Rollins

COMPOSITION (CONCEPT)
 Driven by intuition, artist Greg Dickerson's latest work uses tactile materials on paper surfaces and features gestural colors and complex patterns.

JULY 15

Intuition

Celebrate the opening of artist Greg Dickerson's latest exhibit featuring 28 pieces that pair vibrant hues, graphic markings and fabrics he inherited from his grandmother that juxtapose color, materials and form. Matthew Rochman Gallery, matthewrochmangallery.com

Free.
www.mroch.com

Latin Middle School
darbongardenswalk.com

clothing, jewelry and collectibles. Blaze. Tickets $10. www.blazestreetmarket.com

7/17

Dearborn Garden Walk

One of the country's oldest garden walks features designer vignettes and self-guided tours of some of the city's most historic private gardens. Noon. Tickets $35. Blaze

8/27/28

Randolph Street Market

Known as "the hubbys of vintage," this urban antique market, a fan favorite of celebrity designer Nate Berkus, features 200 select purveyors of high-quality furnishings, vintage

9/10-10/1

West Town Art Walk

This two-day event celebrates art in all forms—visual, musical, culinary and otherwise—from Chicago artists within West Town's diverse community. Times vary. Free.

West Town Chamber of Commerce, www.westtownchicago.com

9/14

Chicago Design Summit

Luxeforae plays host to this one-day made event—the Midwest's largest design summit—with a focus on residential kitchens, baths and building products. Blaze. Free. The Merchandise Mart, chicagoevent.com

9/22/25

Epo Chicago

The three-day art fair kicks off at historic Navy Pier, presenting artwork from 140 leading and emerging galleries from around the world. Fees the opening in style at Vernissage on Sep. 22. Vintage tickets $325; three-day tickets $30. epochicago.com

10/15-16

Open House Chicago

Explore the city's most iconic and unique architectural treasures that are rarely, if ever, open to the public, at this annual fest. Blaze. Free. openhousechicago.org

PHOTO: TAYLOR WELLS; COURTESY OF MATTHEW ROCHMAN GALLERY